DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Bishop et al. (hereinafter "Bishop", US Patent Publication 2005/0187883 A1).

As per claim 1, Bishop discloses a method for starting a wallet program at an Internet terminal for transferring from the terminal data stored electronically in the wallet program to an Internet page opened on the display screen of the terminal wherein the method comprises steps to:

- examine whether the Internet page opened on the display screen of the terminal supports the standard according to the wallet program of the terminal (paragraph [0087]);
- arrange a wallet icon on the display screen of the terminal for starting the wallet program if the Internet page opened supports the standard of the wallet program (paragraph [0066]);

Art Unit: 2157

- start the wallet program from said wallet icon (paragraph [0068]).

As per claim 2, Bishop discloses a method according to claim 1 wherein said wallet program is a wallet program complying with the ECML (Electronic Commerce Modeling Language) standard (paragraph [0078]).

As per claim 3, Bishop discloses a method according to claim 1 wherein the wallet program is started for transferring account transaction information, such as payment card information, from the buyer to a vendor's Internet page (paragraph [0068]).

As per claim 4, Bishop discloses an Internet terminal with an Internet browser program and wallet program for storing information in electronic form on the terminal and for transferring information from the terminal to an Internet page opened on the display screen of the terminal, wherein the terminal further includes an application for determining the standards supported by the Internet page opened on the display screen of the terminal and bringing a wallet icon onto the display screen of the terminal for opening the wallet program (paragraph [0064]).

As per claim 5, Bishop discloses an Internet terminal according to claim 4 wherein said wallet program is a wallet program complying with the ECML (Electronic Commerce Modeling Language) standard (paragraph [0078]).

Art Unit: 2157

As per claim 6, Bishop discloses an Internet terminal according to claim 4 wherein said terminal is a wireless terminal such as a mobile phone (paragraph [0063]).

As per claim 7, Bishop discloses an Internet terminal according to claim 4 wherein said application is part of the Internet browser software of the terminal (paragraph [0065]).

As per claim 8, Bishop discloses an application at an Internet terminal having an Internet browser program and wallet program for storing information in electronic form on the terminal and for transferring information from the terminal to an Internet page opened on the display screen of the terminal, said application comprising

- a means for determining the standards supported by the Internet page opened on the display screen of the terminal (paragraph [0087]);;

- a means for bringing a wallet icon onto the display screen of the terminal for opening the wallet program (paragraph [0068]).

As per claim 9, Bishop discloses an application according to claim 8, wherein said wallet program is a wallet program complying with the ECML (Electronic Commerce Modeling Language) standard (paragraph [0078]).

As per claim 10, Bishop discloses an application according to claim 8 wherein it further comprises an option for enabling and disabling the application (paragraph [0064]).

Art Unit: 2157

As per claim 11, Bishop discloses an application according to claim 8 wherein it is part of the Internet browser software of the terminal (paragraph [0062, 0066]).
